Serviporno, Borjan, and Monetia are collectively referred to as the "Respondents." RECITALS

- A. Porn Pros asserted claims relating to intellectual property infringement against Respondents ("Claims"), via demand letter dated April 16, 2013, relating to Respondents' alleged operation of various adult-themed websites, including Serviporno.com, and Cumlouder.com, and any affiliated sites (the "Websites").
- B. Respondents have denied liability for the infringement claims, and have asserted that the courts of the United States lack personal jurisdiction over their foreign website operation. The Parties thereafter agreed to commence informal settlement discussions in a good faith effort to resolve the Claims.
- C. Respondents deny liability for any of the Claims asserted by PornPros, and PornPros does not agree United States courts lack personal jurisdiction over Respondents. However, the Parties desire to achieve a speedy resolution of the Claims without incurring the burden and expense of formal litigation.
- D. The Parties have determined it to be in their mutual best interests to reduce their agreements to writing.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing Recitals, the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and further good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1.0 Payment

1.1 Cash Payment

Respondent Serviporno agrees to pay PornPros the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars and no cents ($25,000.00) in one lump sum by September 1, 2013.

Serviporno agrees that it shall pay PornPros interest at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum, or .5% per month if the payment is not received by the date indicated above.

The payment shall be in the form of a wire transfer made payable to Randazza Legal Group Trust Account. Instructions are attached to this Agreement.

1.2 Advertising/Marketing Considerations

Respondent Monetia agrees to place a hyperlinking graphical advertisement via an IFRAME hosted by Complainant PornPros measuring 950 pixels in width by 250 pixels in height, the content for which shall be provided by Complainant PornPros, in the footer on every page in Respondent Monetia's password-protected member's area (the "Footer Ad"). Respondent Monetia shall display the Footer Ad to all users, from all countries, at all times for 6 months, beginning within 10 days after the Effective Date. Respondent Monetia shall also create a channel for PornPros content within its members' area, which it shall maintain indefinitely, which is to be created within 10 days of the Effective Date. Complainant PornPros reserves the right to inspect Respondent Monetia's password-protected members' area for compliance with this term at any time.

Respondent Monetia shall earn a 50% revenue share of all sales PornPros derives from the Footer Ad; before receiving these sums, Monetia shall sign up as an affiliate with PornPros. The Parties understand that chargebacks are a normal part of business and to be expected in the course of online commerce. However, the Parties agree that any disputes over significantly higher-than-normal chargebacks Complainant PornPros experiences through the Footer Ad shall first be addressed by written communication in a good faith effort to resolve the dispute. If these good-faith written communications fail to acceptably resolve any Party's dispute over chargebacks, the Parties' dispute shall be subject to the dispute resolution provisions found within Section 20 of this Agreement.

2.0 Undertakings by PornPros

2.1. Pre-suit Requirements and Protections Against Future Litigation

The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement is intended to resolve all pending issues between the Parties relating to the operation of the Websites, in an effort to both address previous Claims and to prevent future litigation. Therefore, prior to the filing of any future litigation against the Respondents, either individually or collectively, relating to intellectual property rights infringement, PornPros agrees that it will afford Respondents an opportunity to remove any and all allegedly infringing material using the PornPros Removal Form and procedure described in paragraph 3.0 below. So long as Respondents discharge their obligations pursuant to paragraph 3.0, PornPros shall not initiate any legal proceeding against the Respondents, or, their agents, employees, successors or assigns, relating to the allegedly infringing material.

2.2. Removal of Existing Infringing Material

Prior to the execution of this Agreement, PornPros has undertaken diligent efforts to identify any content on the Websites that allegedly violates PornPros' intellectual property rights, and has informed Respondents of the existence of any such material, in an effort to allow Respondents an opportunity to remove such material from the Website. No material belonging to PornPros that was published on the Websites prior to the execution of this Agreement shall form the basis for any intellectual property claim against Respondents, subsequent to the execution of this Agreement.

3.0 Undertakings by Respondents

3.1. Future Notifications of Infringement

Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Respondents shall create a specific web form for use by PornPros for the purpose of identifying allegedly infringing links on the Websites to material owned by PornPros (hereinafter the "Porn Pros Removal Form"), which will allow PornPros to fill in hyperlinks and submit any Website URL it believes to be infringing on its copyrights. Submission of one or more links on the Porn Pros Removal Form will then automatically result in the content being removed from the subject Website, within twenty-four (24) hours of submission of a link to material appearing on one or more of the Websites. The relevant Website user(s) who are responsible for uploading the identified material will be identified as an infringer, consistent with the Websites' Notice & Takedown Policy, and subject to termination under Respondent's Repeat Infringer Policy ("RIP"). ServiPorno shall promptly provide to PornPros links to all files uploaded by any user identified by PornPros as an infringer, so as to enable PornPros to determine if any other identifiable PornPros material, has been uploaded by the user. PornPros shall identify any additional infringing links. Any such material shall also be removed, and ServiPorno shall terminate the user as a repeat infringer. Submission of a link on the Porn Pros Removal Form shall constitute a formal Notification of Infringement pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA"). PornPros may use formal DMCA notices in lieu of this procedure, if deemed necessary, proper, or desirable, but should not use both this method and formal DMCA notices for the same link.

3.2. Modification of Repeat Infringer Policy

Within fifteen (15) days of the execution of this Agreement, ServiPorno agrees that its RIP shall state that any user who receives more than two (i.e., a total of three or more) final notifications of infringement, as defined in the RIP, shall be terminated as a repeat infringer. A terminated user's email address and username shall be blocked permanently. Any content forming the basis for the termination shall be deleted, and ServiPorno shall provide to PornPros links to all files uploaded by the terminated user so as to enable PornPros to review this user's library for any other infringements of PornPros' copyrights. ServiPorno shall pay PornPros $500 per clearly-identifiable PornPros video that remains in a suspended member's library more than fourteen (14) days after PornPros notifies ServiPorno of its infringing status, through one of the methods set forth herein, unless ServiPorno can establish that a communications failure prevented it from actually receiving notification of the continued availability of the infringing video on the site. In the event PornPros identifies the existence of such video in such time frame, PornPros will provide notice identifying the URL location of the offending video to ServiPorno in accordance with this Agreement, and ServiPorno shall issue payment within fifteen (15) days upon PornPros' transmission of notice identifying the infringing video(s).

3.3. DMCA Subpoena Procedure

After the execution of this Agreement, in the event PornPros submits a link on the Porn Pros Removal Form, and no counter-notification is received from the responsible user within fourteen (14) days, Respondents acknowledge that PornPros shall be entitled to initiate any appropriate court action, and issue a valid DMCA subpoena seeking subscriber information associated with the uploader of the allegedly infringing material. In the event PornPros serves Serviporno with a valid DMCA subpoena for Website end user information, Serviporno agrees not to challenge the subpoena for lack of personal jurisdiction. PornPros further agrees that any failure by Serviporno to challenge DMCA subpoenas for lack of personal jurisdiction shall not constitute a waiver or consent to personal jurisdiction of any U.S. state or federal court, and that such actions shall be inadmissible in any legal proceeding by PornPros against Respondents, for the purpose of establishing the existence of personal jurisdiction. Expeditiously upon receipt of the DMCA subpoena, Serviporno shall notify the affected user of the receipt thereof, and provide the user two (2) days within which to notify Serviporno in writing whether the user intends to challenge the validity of the subpoena by way of a motion to quash or other appropriate legal vehicle. In the event Serviporno receives notice of the end user's intent to challenge the subpoena, Serviporno shall provide the user a period of fourteen (14) days within which to file the necessary court papers. In the event Serviporno confirms that no legal challenge has been mounted by the end user to the validity of the subpoena within the fourteen (14) day period, it shall release any end user information maintained in its system that is requested by the subpoena, in the form of a subpoena response. This paragraph imposes no duty upon Serviporno to maintain any specific categories of information associated with the Websites' users, except Internet Protocol ("IP") address logs.

4.0. Websites' Legal Status

Respondents shall not be considered in breach of this Agreement, and shall not be liable for any legal claims based on infringement of PornPros' copyrights or trademarks, with respect to any PornPros Content appearing on the Websites so long as Respondents comply with the obligations imposed by Section 3.0. PornPros further agrees that so long as Respondents perform their responsibilities under this Agreement, the operation of the Websites shall not be deemed as infringing by PornPros or violative of PornPros' intellectual property rights.

5.0 Incorporation of Recitals

The above Recitals are incorporated as though fully set forth herein.

2.0 Undertakings by PornPros

2.1. Pre-suit Requirements and Protections Against Future Litigation

The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement is intended to resolve all pending issues between the Parties relating to the operation of the Websites, in an effort to both address previous Claims and to prevent future litigation. Therefore, prior to the filing of any future litigation against the Respondents, either individually or collectively, relating to intellectual property rights infringement, PornPros agrees that it will afford Respondents an opportunity to remove any and all allegedly infringing material using the PornPros Removal Form and procedure described in paragraph 3.0 below. So long as Respondents discharge their obligations pursuant to paragraph 3.0, PornPros shall not initiate any legal proceeding against the Respondents, or, their agents, employees, successors or assigns, relating to the allegedly infringing material.

2.2. Removal of Existing Infringing Material

Prior to the execution of this Agreement, PornPros has undertaken diligent efforts to identify any content on the Websites that allegedly violates PornPros' intellectual property rights, and has informed Respondents of the existence of any such material, in an effort to allow Respondents an opportunity to remove such material from the Website. No material belonging to PornPros that was published on the Websites prior to the execution of this Agreement shall form the basis for any intellectual property claim against Respondents, subsequent to the execution of this Agreement.

3.0 Undertakings by Respondents

3.1. Future Notifications of Infringement

Within 10 days of the Effective Date, Respondents shall create a specific web form for use by PornPros for the purpose of identifying allegedly infringing links on the Websites to material owned by PornPros (hereinafter the "Porn Pros Removal Form"), which will allow PornPros to fill in hyperlinks and submit any Website URL it believes to be infringing on its copyrights. Submission of one or more links on the Porn Pros Removal Form will then automatically result in the content being removed from the subject Website, within twenty-four (24) hours of submission of a link to material appearing on one or more of the Websites. The relevant Website user(s) who are responsible for uploading the identified material will be identified as an infringer, consistent with the Websites' Notice & Takedown Policy, and subject to termination under Respondent's Repeat Infringer Policy ("RIP"). ServiPorno shall promptly provide to PornPros links to all files uploaded by any user identified by PornPros as an infringer, so as to enable PornPros to determine if any other identifiable PornPros material, has been uploaded by the user. Submission of a link on the Porn Pros Removal Form shall constitute a formal Notification of Infringement pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA"). PornPros may use formal DMCA notices in lieu of this procedure, if deemed necessary, proper, or desirable, but should not use both this method and formal DMCA notices for the same link.

3.2. Modification of Repeat Infringer Policy

Within fifteen (15) days of the execution of this Agreement, ServiPorno agrees that its RIP shall state that any user who receives more than two (i.e., a total of three or more) final notifications of infringement, as defined in the RIP, shall be terminated as a repeat infringer. A terminated user's email address and username shall be blocked permanently. Any content forming the basis for the termination shall be deleted, and ServiPorno shall provide to PornPros links to all files uploaded by the terminated user so as to enable PornPros to review this user's library for any other infringements of PornPros' copyrights. ServiPorno shall pay PornPros $500 per clearly-identifiable PornPros video that remains in a suspended member's library more than fourteen (14) days after PornPros notifies ServiPorno of its infringing status, through one of the methods set forth herein, unless ServiPorno can establish that a communications failure prevented it from actually receiving notification of the continued availability of the infringing video on the site. PornPros further agrees that any failure by Serviporno to challenge DMCA subpoenas for lack of personal jurisdiction shall not constitute a waiver or consent to personal jurisdiction of any U.S. state or federal court, and that such actions shall be inadmissible in any legal proceeding by PornPros against Respondents, for the purpose of establishing the existence of personal jurisdiction. Expeditiously upon receipt of the DMCA subpoena, Serviporno shall notify the affected user of the receipt thereof, and provide the user two (2) days within which to notify Serviporno in writing whether the user intends to challenge the validity of the subpoena by way of a motion to quash or other appropriate legal vehicle. In the event Serviporno receives notice of the end user's intent to challenge the subpoena, Serviporno shall provide the user a period of fourteen (14) days within which to file the necessary court papers. In the event Serviporno confirms that no legal challenge has been mounted by the end user to the validity of the subpoena within the fourteen (14) day period, it shall release any end user information maintained in its system that is requested by the subpoena, in the form of a subpoena response. This paragraph imposes no duty upon Serviporno to maintain any specific categories of information associated with the Websites' users, except Internet Protocol ("IP") address logs.

4.0. Websites' Legal Status

Respondents shall not be considered in breach of this Agreement, and shall not be liable for any legal claims based on infringement of PornPros' copyrights or trademarks, with respect to any PornPros Content appearing on the Websites so long as Respondents comply with the obligations imposed by Section 3.0.
